Binibining pilipinas 2018 question and answer

Another year of Binibining Pilipinas is over. The new beauty queen was crowned. Binibining Pilipinas 2018: Road to the Crown Coronation was held at Smart Araneta Coliseum last night, March 18. The event was hosted by actors Richard Gutierrez, actress and Miss Universe 2015 Pia Wurtzbach, and Miss Grand International 2016 1st Runner-Up Nicole Cordova. The panel of judges includes ABS-CBN Lifestyle Ecosystem Head Ces Oreña-Drilon, ABS-CBN Chief Technology Officer Martin Lopez, Miss International 2005 Precious Lara Quigaman, President of Construction Megawide Edgar Saaavedra, U. S. Ambassador to the Philippines Sung Kim, Columbia's ambassador to Philippines H.E. Victor Hugo Echiverri, Novotel Hotels General Manager Mike Brown, actor Gerald Anderson, volleyball player Alysa Valdez, and Ateneo Blue Eagles play basketball Third Ravena. Out of 40 candidates, 25 moved to the next place where they were modeled hostage in their yellow bikinis, unchanged shortly after going to the stunning spots. The top 25 was then added further into the Top 15, which signs the beginning of most landed (and dreaded!) part of any beauty page. Q&A portion. READ: Binibining Pilipinas 2018 Recap: Winners of the Special Awards and Top 25 Candidates have asked questions related to current events weighing issues in the Philippine beauty topics related to pages related to. Here's a summary of the Q&A portion: #35 Sandra Lemonon Question (from Edgard Saaavedra): The question is, what is your insights on the Government Building, Build, Build, Build programme? Insights into the government 'Build, Build, Build' program. Actually, you know what, I studied a lot for this Q&A, unfortunately, that's something that I don't know really much about, but at least I'm here trying to answer a good question. #11 Maria Andrea Abesamis Question (from Mike Brown): Boracay and its dangerous environmental situation, what is your view on this issue? My view on this issue is that it's a big issue right now, and that we need to conserve our natural habitats and our island as a Philippine and a Philippine, because we live here. We live in the country. There are locals there. And we are supposed to take care of it.#14 Samantha Bernardo Question (from Gerald Anderson): My question is, what do you think is the biggest competition on beauty page competition? I think the biggest misconception of pageant beauty today is that we are just beautiful. But we don't. We are fair confidence. We are compassionate and very proficient. We are in the days where we've surpassed the stereotypes about women, and we continue to prove ourselves in society, where it can elevate a family, or in office with a career, or just like me here, join pageants, celebrate our feminine. #24 Edjelyn Joy Gamboa Question (from Alysa Valdez): If inner beauty is highlighted in beauty pages, then why have physical conditions on joining her? speaking, there is no requirement or condition of beauty in a competition like this. Everyone accepts with as long as you have a good heart, as long as you are confident and seem to you then you will be part of Binibining Pilipinas. #3 Muriel Orasis Question (from Martin Lopez): This year marks the graduation of the first-ever batch of K-12 students, what are your messages? My message to students is that you have to focus on your studies because parents are very difficult for good education. I believe that education will give you knowledge and experience, and it will give them a better future. #1 Vickie Rushton Question (from Third Ravena): Do you believe that hatred and brotherhood have its own good, why not? I believe any violence is right because someone alone can stand for himself or herself. Just as a Binibining Pilipinas, I can be that influence spreads the word that violence is not acceptable. #32 Eva Patalinjug Questions (from H.E. Victor Hugo Echiverri): What is the role of beauty queen in pursuing our country's economy successfully, if any? The Queen's role in beauty is to be a voice. I'm here to make a message for all of you. In times of uncertainty and fear that have apparently taken over our country, we remain firm as we face all challenges. As a nation, what we have to do is set aside our political differences, forget our economic and social preferences, and let love and loyalty for our country climb above all, so we can walk into our future in the hopes of making a country of peace. #17 Maria Athisa Manalo Question (from Precious Lara Quigaman): How should a beauty queen respond to critics without fault? A beauty queen should always respond to criticism constructively. We, the Queen of beauty, we face public and we put ourselves in a position to judge us. But however, we should always filter out which comments we should accept and what we should not. #19 Michele Gumabao Question (from Ces Oreña-Drilon): What can you do to fight fake news? I know that fake news is very rampant nowadays, but in order to fight this, we must first know what we're reporting, know what we're reading and, at the same time, be held accountable for what we say, especially online. And I hope that media always filters the news, the resources, they always deliver truth and authentic news. #31 Jehza Mae Huelar Question (from Kim Sung): What do you think is the most important quality of a millennial woman? I think the most important quality a millennial woman is having a vision, and with her vision, she should have that attitude and persistence so that she can achieve her goals. And, in that vision, he would be able to express himself freely. So I would hope that all the millennial out here would really comply with our culture and tradition so we can inspire others. We can impact people. #26 Wynona Buonona Buot Question (from Gerald Anderson): No one big artists you really admire and why. A Philippines great artist I really admire would probably be Toni Gonzaga. Although she's a celebrity, and we have a stereotype when it comes to celebrities, I really admire her because she follows a certain path when it comes to her life. He actually has a successful career, a complete family, and he has done these all along in following his parents. And this is an important thing that we, millennials, have to learn. You will never fail in life when you follow your parents. #21 Anjane Magbitang Question (from Martin Lopez): When is the right time to listen, and when is the right time to talk? A time to listen if you're respected who will talk to you will, you'll try to talk after the people who talk to you talk, because there must be, the best version... #38 Karen Gallman Question (from Precious Lara Quigaman): You agree that the third restoration should be built for transgance, why not? I definitely agree there should be a third restoration for transganc because as women would like privacy, and also with men. And we have a separate room for the transganc, to serve as equality and private, privatization. #15 Juliana Kapeunul Question (from Ces Oreña-Drilon): Misogyny or women against women has been prevalent recently. How should this be addressed? I think this should be addressed by the maintenance of women. We, women, should think we are not just women. We don't need to label as mothers, daughters, sisters, we have our own individuality, and we should use it to our advantage and let our strengths shine. So, as a woman, we must improve our co-women to achieve equality and men. #20 Catriona Gray LI: Why Catriona Gray might be the next Miss Universal Inquiries (from Kim Sung): After the devastating war, Marawi is now on her way to recovery. What is your message to marawi young women? Thanks for that question. My response and my message to women had to be fake. As women, we are heads of the house and have amazing influence not only in our own families as mothers, sisters, and friends, but also in our communities. If we could find women to stay strong and be that strong image for children and those around them, then once the reconstruction is finished and on foot, the community molled will remain strong and high.
